New Delhi, Nov 1 (PTI) Deenanath Rajput, a former software engineer, was awarded the 2nd Rohini Nayyar prize for his significant contributions to the empowerment of tribal women in Bastar, Chhattisgarh.

Rajput, after a brief stint in the software industry, decided to venture into social work and founded a women-only Farmers' Producer Organisation (FPO) in the Naxal-affected regions of Bastar.

Since its inception, the FPO has witnessed remarkable growth, with its membership
